This mission directive prescribes the mission, organization, and responsibilities for Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC) 701st Combat Operations Squadron (701 COS).

1. Mission:

1.1. Peacetime. To organize, train, and equip assigned personnel to provide combat operations augmentation to Seventh Air Force battle staff. Provides continuity of operations in skills and personnel enhancing war fighting capability.

1.2. Wartime/Emergencies. Governed by gaining command directives upon mobilization.

2. Command. The 701 COS is assigned to a regional support group.

3. Assigned Forces. While in peacetime status and during 2 weeks of annual training, the 701 COS is under the direct control and supervision of the unit to which assigned. Under a Presidential call-up issued pursuant to Title 10 U.S.C. 12304, administrative jurisdiction remains unchanged. Operational control transfers to the commander of the gaining command. Under mobilization authority, command jurisdiction transfers to the commander of the unit to which assigned by the gaining command.

4. Relationships to Other Units. Established command channels apply. Communicate directly with other Air Force combat operations units on matters relating to training, inspection, and safety.

5. Special Instructions: Request changes to the organizational structure according to AFI 38-101, Air Force Organization, and submit to HQ AFRC/XPM.
